Congratulations to our star pupil Olivia in Year 6 for winning the Aston Villa Poetry Competition with her amazing entry! Please take the time to read the poem on the next page...

International Women's Day Poem

Write a poem about women who inspire you, inspiring women in sport or women's football, starting each line with letters that spell out INSPIRE INCLUSION. The winner will have their poem read out by first team men's and women's players of Aston Villa.

I nternational Women's Day reminds me of who I can be.

No dreams are too big or ever too small,

So many people show me I can do it all.

Perseverance and determination is what they show,

In the world men and women can all have space to grow.

Right now we can have our own glow,

Everyone deserves a chance to shine, no matter what gender.

In my eyes, I can see a world where individuals are included.

Now it's time to show everyone what women can do,

Countless possibilities for me and you.

Lionesses' victories have opened new female players' eyes

Uplifting one another through the tough times.

Show everyone there's nothing we can't achieve,

I know anyone can follow what they believe.

Onwards we go to a better future, we are arriving,

Never, ever stop thriving.
